

16 Reasons why Great Coaches make the Best Parents!

1. They know how to get players working together as a team.
2. They recognize and encourage their players' strengths.
3. They make time for whole team and one-on-one coaching.
4. They teach their players how to play without them.
5. They know how to create a team identity so everyone feels like they belong.
6. They help players improve with positive feedback.
7. They make sure their players understand the rules of the game.
8. They keep their cool when players make mistakes.
9. They give players pep talks before the big game.
10. They use Time-Outs to problem solve and re-strategize.
11. They model and expect good sportsmanship.
12. They listen to their players and welcome feedback.
13. They isn't working and they accept when a strategy focus on effort and change it.
14. They improvement more than things fun because they that plays together,
15. They keep know that the team stays together.
16. They always in their team!

BELIEVE

